TWO CENTS

SOLDIER BOYS WILL SPEAK AT PUBLIC MEETING THIS EVENING

Steel Products Band Will Give a Concert at Fifth Street Stand

MORE INTEREST IN CAMPAIGN

The Phg. Steel Products band will be at the Fifth street stadium this evening and will give a concert prior to the public meeting to be held in the interests of the Victory Liberty Loan. The speakers will be local soldier boys, who will tell of their experiences in camp and in battle. Chairman Berryman therefore has issued an appeal to our people to come out and hear our boys tell their own story in their own way. This is not to be an oratorical contest, but a soldier's story of a soldier's experience while in the service of his country during the recent war. Those who will speak are Jack Carroll, Mike Mino, Wm. Ludwig, Harry Barbarick, Patrick Gilmore, Russell DeSellems, Walter Carney, Earl Wagner. All soldiers have been requested to appear in uniform.

Interest in the campaign increased wonderfully yesterday and this morning quite a number of members of the committee of seventy were at headquarters to take part in the "mopping up" for additional subscriptions. They carried Victory flags with them and wherever a store or manufacturing plant is reported 100 per cent they will receive one of these emblems.

Many of those who had previously subscribed for one of two bonds are visiting headquarters and qualifying for membership in the 500 Club, and this list is constantly increasing.

During the remaining period of the campaign Chairman Berryman urges every worker to do their utmost in pushing the town over the quota. It needs $109,700 to reach the flag, and he believes the workers will be able to accomplish the job. Some of the manufacturing plants are making a re-canvass and are endeavoring to secure the 100 per cent flag. Various committees are also calling on citizens in every section of the borough and prospects are splendid for ultimate success.

The Rev. G. D. Griffiths, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, took part in special services at St. Paul's church, Monongahela, Wednesday evening, at which time the Rev. Edmund L. Souder, of Hankow, China, now on furlough in this country, made the principal address.

A PEACE MESSAGE

Uncle Sam answered the call of the world war with a message of might. A message of 2,000,000 soldiers, armed and ready for the fray. A message of billions of dollars converted into implements of warfare.

A message that struck terror to the heart of the Hun. Not for a moment was there hesitation once the arrogant challenge of Kaiser Bill was accepted. Nor for an instant was there doubt of the result.

Uncle Sam took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves, tossed his hat into the ring and waded in.

And what a punch he carried! But back of that punch was the concentrated will, the undivided loyalty, the enthusiastic patriotism of all America. Every true son was in line.

They gave their lives, they gave their money, they gave their services wherever and however they might. They furnished the punch.

And that punch brought the knockout for Germany. Now Uncle Sam is about to send another message to the world at large.

A message of peace.

Having been in at the kill; having forced the Hun to his knees and the Kaiser into exile; the German monarchy into a republic, and Prussianism into an hospitable oblivion, Uncle Sam has a word to say to the world.

He wants it to know that he stands today for everything he fought for in the world war; that the principles he supported then he indorses still; that his interest in the liberties of the world is no one whit abated; that the democracy he staked out to make safe must be protected and perpetuated.

Most of all he wants the world to know that Americans to a man are back of him in every one of these things.

With the proceeds of the next Victory-Liberty loan he can square accounts.

With every debt paid he can face the world proudly; his whole duty done.

With your support this will be possible. This message of peace may be sent.

Is Seriously Injured In Motorcycle Accident

Arthur LaRose, aged 20, of 424 Motheral a venue, Monessen, is in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, very seriously injured as the result of an accident which occurred in North Charleroi last evening. The accident happened at 6:50 p. m., at which time LaRose, who was riding in a sidecar of a motorcycle driven by John Elgin, also of Monessen, was thrown in front of a street car and run over.

The motorcycle had passed a West side street car, both bound for Charleroi. Shortly after passing the car the motorcycle met a truck going in an opposite direction, when Elgin was hit on the knee by the passing machine. This caused him to stop the cycle suddenly, which pitched LaRose out of the car, and on to the street car tracks, directly in front of the street car, which passed over his prostrate body. His head and face were struck by under portions of the car as it passed over him, fracturing his skull, and it is believed dislocating his neck. His face was also badly bruised and he lies at the hospital in a most serious condition.

CHARLEROI SLOVAK BAND TO PLAY THIS EVENING

The Charleroi Slovak band will also be at the Victory Liberty loan meeting this evening, as they cannot appear Saturday evening, as contemplated, on account of a previous engagement.

APRIL "MURDER MONTH" IN WESTMORELAND

CLIMBS POLE; RELEASES FLAG

Effort Watched by Large Number of Interested Spectators

SEVERAL FAILED IN ATTEMPT

The municipal flag, which had fouled on the top of the steel pole several days ago at the corner of Fifth and McKean and which had given the police, who are the caretakers, a great deal of concern, was finally released from its undignified position of Thursday afternoon.

The release, however, was not accomplished until after several efforts had been made by a number of young men, all of whom were able to climb the pole, but who were unable to get up under the flag, which was wrapped in such a way as to make it difficult to handle. After climbing the distance to the flag they were considerably exhausted, and had to give up the effort.

Finally a ladder was secured, which gave one of the young men, Pidge Vezetti, quite a start, and he went to the top and released the flag. Others who made the attempt were T. L. Dainty, Howard Rowe, Homer Gobert, and a colored man with the sobriquet of "Shorty."

The efforts of the climbers were watched by a large concourse of people, many of whom thought efforts to release the flag would fail, but when Vezetti accomplished the job he was complimented for the work.

Will Assist Creamery Company in Securing Local Headquarters

GIVES AID TO BASEBALL CLUB

A fairly well attended meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association was held at the Hotel Charleroi Thursday evening, at which time several matters of importance to the community were taken up and discussed.

A letter was read by the secretary from C. C. McKallip, a real estate broker of Pittsburgh who said he had two manufacturing enterprises which were looking for building sites. The secretary was instructed to get in touch with Mr. McKallip and have representatives of the manufacturing companies to visit Charleroi and look over the local field.

Burgess Woodward, who was present, spoke of the Charleroi baseball club, which opens its season tomorrow, and asked the Association to lend it its support to the undertaking. After a short discussion it was decided to vote $25 to the organization.

Mr. Pieper, chairman of the by-laws committee, read the first draft of the laws, which will later be taken up for adoption.

H. B. Ralston, representing the Charleroi Creamery Company, was present and read a letter from the company, which was a request for the establishment of a branch headquarters at some point in this section of the valley. The advertisement of Charleroi were pointed out to him and the situation will be looked over, with a possibility that headquarters may be established here.

The question of a reception to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the great war was taken up and discussed and as this will require a great deal of time and money it was decided to appoint a committee to act in conjunction with the soldiers in preparing for such an event. President Schaefer appointed Harry W. Scott, John K. Hein, W. S. James, J. R. Kelley and H. L. Swickey, who will report on plans at the next meeting.

Thirteen new members were received into the association as follows: Roy I. Carson, A. M. Marshall, F. H. Bethen, Albert B. Brown, G. T. Barger, W. C. Sutherland, Carl Dittman, J. T. Heffran, E. R. Norris, James S. Russell, E. V. Duty, Harry Ballis and J. G. Al-

RESTORATION OF ST. SOPHIA

There is good reason for the demand of Greek prelates, widely echoed in the Christian world, that St. Sophia be made once more a Christian church. Whatever the victorious Allies in conference or the League of Nations at a later day may do with Constantinople, the old church of St. Sophia ought to be restored to the faith of those who built the rare specimen of Byzantine architecture which now represents the crowning glory of a style peculiarly adopted to its Near East environment. This would not be an act of spoliation or tyrannical seizure by the conquerors but a simple measure of restitution and therefore indisputably just. It is true that St. Sophia has been a Mohammedan shrine for more than four centuries, but it had been a Christian church for many more centuries. In 1453 the Turks seized it as part of their conquered spoils amid scenes of bestial violence. Turning to Gibbons account of the pillage of Constantinople after the city had been subdued by the arms of Mahomet II, we read:

"The victorious Turks rushed through the breaches of the inner wall. In the first heat of the pursuit about two thousand Christians were put to the sword. The trembling inhabitants flocked together in the streets like a herd of timid animals. From every part of the capital they flowed into the church of St. Sophia in the space of an hour the sanctuary, the choir, the nave, the upper and lower galleries, were filled with the multitude of fathers and husbands, of women and children, of priests, monks, and religious virgins. The doors were barred on the inside, and they sought protection from the sacred dome. Their confidence was founded on the prophecy of an enthusiast that one day the Turks would enter Constantinople and pursue the Romans as far as the column of Constantine in the square before St. Sophia, but that an angel would then descend from heaven with a sword in his hand and would deliver the empire. While they expected the descent of the angel the doors were broken open with axes. In the space of an hour the multitude of captives were bound. The senators were linked with their slaves the prelates with the porters of the church and the young men of plebeian class with noble maids. In this common captivity the ties of nature were cut asunder and the inexorable soldier was careless of the father's groans, the tears of the mother and the lamentations of the children. Above sixty thousand of this devoted people were transported from the city, exchanged or sold, and dispersed in remote servitude through the Ottoman empire."

The restoration after 466 years of the church which was the theatre of such horrors is demanded of the present victors if they believe in simple justice. Rustom Rustomjee, a Parsee now lecturing in this country who has been witness of Mohammedan fanaticism in his native India, expresses the hope that St. Sophia will not be taken from the Mohammedans because that would result in "holy war" and great bloodshed. But civilization does not usually leave pirates in possession of their loot merely in order to forestall bloody resistance.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Postmaster-General Burleson has demonstrated the utility of government ownership says the Wall Street Journal. He has shown what

for Coughs and Sore Throat
GUARANTEED

these experienced in such enterprises could have told him: That public ownership in practice means political ownership, and so far from improving with time, tends to grow steadily worse. Mr. Burleson has shown that the cost of the service increases that the public, paying more, receives service inferior to that under competitive management, and that because of politics of the worst kind the service employed acquires power far beyond its due. The tendency, in practice, is to establish an artificial scale of wages on a random basis bearing less and less relation to the value of the service rendered.

It now appears that those stories of friendly feeling between natives of the American doughboys were due to efforts of an organized German propaganda to win over our soldiers with smiles and flattery. The effort having failed, comradeship being impossible after all that had gone before, the Germans devoted themselves to other schemes.

"The United States has no desire to interfere in European affairs or to act as arbiter in European territorial disputes."—President Wilson to the Congress, February 11, 1918

LARGE INCREASE IN COUNTY VALUATION

The total valuation of Washington county is $164,214,492. Final totals of the county wealth were available at the county commissioners' office on Wednesday and they showed a county valuation of $133,313,257 on real estate, occupations, horses and cattle and the total returns for taxable mortgages, judgments, bank accounts, stocks, bonds, etc., of $25,901,235. Some taxables are late in making this latter return and the final total taxation will run over twenty-six millions of dollars.

The borrowing capacity of the county is based on the valuation, and by a recent court decision the valuation of mortgages, judgments, etc., is included in the total. The increased valuation on real estate, etc., since the last triennial assessment is $12,000,000 and since the assessment of mortgages and judgments had never been included in the borrowing capacity of the county, this gives an additional $25,000,000, or a total of thirty-seven millions of dollars above the triennial assessment of 1916.

By reason of this increase in valuation the county commissioners, if they so desire, can issue additional county road bonds to the extent of $45,000, having already issued $125,000 for the current year.

HUN HELMET FOR SOME ONE WORKER

Chairman Daly has given to the Women's Victory Loan campaign committee of Charleroi one of the German helmets which the Huns had prepared and which was to have been used in their "triumphal" entry into Paris after they had won the war. As the Hun schedule was disarranged by the allied forces, and as the helmets could not be used for their original purpose, the American expeditionary forces appropriated quite a lot of them and sent them to the United States.

Mrs. Wright announced this morning that the helmet now in her possession will be given to the member of her committee which sells the largest amount of bonds in value and that the award will be made as soon as final figures are made available.

Lester Player-Piano

Pennsylvania's Governor Appreciates Good Music

Those who have watched the splendid career of Governor William C. Sproul with the greatest satisfaction admire more than anything else in him his sterling manhood and his deep love of home. It is only natural that such a man, a power in finance and industry, as well as politics, should give music a prominent place in his daily life.

The following letter, written by him to the Lester Piano Co., is an entirely voluntary expression of his opinion concerning the pianos he has had in his own home:

Gentlemen: I have had considerable experience with your pianos and piano-players, and they have given me excellent service and satisfaction. The original Lester piano which we had for a number of years was a splendid instrument. I replaced it with a Lester Player-Piano, however, about five years ago, and this instrument, likewise, has been a great pleasure and satisfaction to us. We regard the Lester piano very highly, and your product is held in high honor here in the neighborhood where it is made.

Very truly yours,

WM. C. SPROUL

Governor Sproul, typifying the best citizenship of our country, is joined in his satisfaction with Lester Pianos by such internationally famous artists as Louise Homer, Olive Fremstad, Margareta Ober, Bella Alten, Alice Neilsen, Charlotte Maconda, G. Campanari, Alfred Hertz and Franz Kneisel, who have spoken enthusiastically of their high musical qualities.

Their rich mellow tone, easy action, superb finish and wonderful durability place them among the world's foremost pianos. And, yet, with all their admitted superiority, they are as easy to own as the inferior, "assembled" kinds, because they are sold direct, eliminating all "in-between" profits of agent and jobber. Let us show you how conveniently you can own a Lester.

Are you Starving your Battery?

You can't tell whether your battery is hungry or not by merely looking at it or by the way it acts, for a half charged battery will spin the engine with all the vim, apparently, of a fully charged one, and will keep the lights almost as bright. But wait! Do you know what a starved battery is? Its one that won't hold a charge—a battery that has been repeatedly undercharged.

To insure long life and satisfactory services your battery must be kept fully charged and the cells filled with distilled water 1-2 inch above the tops of the plates. Never fill the cells full. Come to us and have your battery tested twice each month. This service is free and may save you needless trouble and expense.

GERMANY SURRENDERS—ARE YOU STILL GLAD TODAY?

Gold Dollars

or Stars!

Three men in a dugout.

Z - Z - Z - ! Bang— !

One man groaning in agony, asking someone for mercy's sake to kill him——writhing on the ground—legless.

One man crouching against the wall, the upper part of his head blown off, a grotesque jaw the only indication that a man's head had been on that body.

And a third—the writer.

Who stopped this slaughter?
You at home.

Germany saw that you were heart and soul in the struggle; that you were willing to make any sacrifice for victory; that your tremendous war preparations in men, equipment, munitions, ships and aeroplanes made Victory a certainty.

Now you have the chance of paying for that Victory with your dollars instead of your sons' blood—with gold dollars instead of gold service stars.

The man who passed through this experience will invest. Will You?

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."—Mrs. ALICE HELLER, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience.

If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your ailment. The result of its long experience is at your service.

TRUE BILL IS FOUND AGAINST JAMES GIBBS

The grand jury at Washington on Wednesday returned a true bill against James Gibbs, charged with causing the death of Alex. Laing. "THE SPIRIT OF MEMORIALS"

As the spring blossoms into summer we feel, some of us, the absence of those dear ones who have passed to "the beyond." We miss their laughter, their kindnesses, their caresses. Ought we not give actual expression to the loving remembrance in which they are held?

The custom of marking their resting places is as old and as beautiful as the old, old world itself.

We cannot honor our loved ones more, nor perpetuate their memory more effectively, than by the erection of a monument. Properly carved, by a master artisan, such a memorial is a lasting tribute to our affection for them.

Is there not some one whose memory deserves this recognition from you?
